COMMON COUNCIL.

There was a well attended meeting of the foard last night.

Alter some routice business which was unbated, the bill providing for laying sidewalks so unpayed streets was taken up, and explained by Mr. Lambert as intended to promote the sablishment of sidewalks on screets whose extringe ways should be shelled.

Mr. Echberg opposed the expenditure of My more money or in advancing sums for confuering pavements that ought to be paid for private owners. He said that when the Bard of Public Works was created it was said that this special tex would raise a large sum of and y. But none of it has been collected and the city now lays cut of thousands of dollars on Mr. Lambert favored the bill.

Mr. Martury agreed with Mr. Elchberg that tes law was needless and might put the city 11 to expense. He thought there was law though, now on the subject of sidewalks and steets, and wanted a postponement to exem-
